FEATURED NEWS

Tom Ford Womenswear Spring/Summer 2014

Tom Ford's Womenswear collection for Spring/Summer 2014 is created for powerful women who aren't shy to express their strength and confident glamour. Shapely leatherwear hugs the body in the form of quilted mini dresses and intricate moto jackets adorned with zips and buckles. Laser-cut mesh leathers in black and white give graphic punch to short dresses, separates and moto jackets, with fluid city trench coats worn on top. Sharp black, double-breasted trouser suits cinched at the waist and paired with pleat-front trousers and heels make a powerful statement of unapologetic strength. The collection explores the provocative tension of what's covered and what's not: Sheer, long-sleeved mini dresses wrap the body in curling ribbons and chiffon patchwork, covering more than they show. Sheer black safari jackets are also worn with paneled, satin and leather mini skirts.

Trina Turk New Spring Arrivals

Hit the road with Trina Turk this Spring inspired as she cruises the California Coastline. Styling is cool and relaxed with effortless road-trip inspired nonchalance. The lines between fashion, activewear and lounge-wear looks begin to blur. Matched sets are intriguing with coordinating "total-look" prints. Short shorts, woven tees, fancy sweatshirts, jumpsuits and flirty dresses are prerequisites for any encounters along the way.
